Hello April

President's Message

Dear DGC fellow members –
Growth and engagement

Activity has picked up. The weather has been getting better, and we find times when we can sit outside. Personally, besides our own porch at home, I think there is no nicer place than the patio at the Golf Club (the view of the Golf Club is better than at home). With a place like that, the bar inside, as well as the restaurant (and service that beats self-service), we should be packed all the time!

The Board is committed to getting the place spruced up and scrubbing of chairs, putting out mulch etc. are small things that make a difference. We are very aware that we have some things that need more than a superficial touch up, but all will come in due time.

I have asked the Board to exercise discipline in spending. While meeting our debt service payments, our capital contributions are being set aside for emergencies. As soon as we have that funded (so that we do not have to panic when (not if) something breaks) we can start our “regular” capital spend again.

I am very excited about how your Board Chairs are forming committees and tackling many things with energy. We realize the tremendous pool of professional talent in this Club and are asking people to engage. If you have skillsets, please offer them up. Part of the joy of membership and how clubs work is through professional volunteers. Let me give you some examples: Nate “Roundy” offered several ideas during the annual meeting related to fixing up our website and has begun on this. Katie Thomas mentioned city resources that have already been consulted on golf course horticulture. Mark Dill bought a new drone and has been taking areal videos of the course to be able to show a bird’s eye view (like you have seen on the tv tournaments!). Mitchell Smith is joining the committee, and we will be doing some member surveys soon. Wade Collins is diving deep into our insurance renewal and ensuring that we are protected. You may thank them for their service already, but I cannot wait until we see the results of their efforts.

There are more “behind the scenes” efforts as well – preparation for the pool season – tournament scheduling – getting the course in shape - and preparing and managing those financials (!). Our thanks as well to our staff, who manages to impress any guests with their culinary and libationary talents.

Key to the upcoming years will be our growth. We are going to “buck the trend” and go against what is happening in so many clubs: we are going to grow! Our committee efforts will be aligned with that because we realize that this is the only sustainable path. Of course, we want this to be in a way that we feel good about.

We have had a variety of great people join as new members this year. Next month I hope to start showing you some numbers (I know a few of you love that!) on how this is progressing against our goals. For our current members: did you know you can autopay your dues every month (no check-writing anymore!); If you do decide to mail it in, please do so by the due date listed on your invoice – this helps us with our cash flow. If you have guests at the restaurant (or eat there by yourself) – anyone can pay (also by credit card), you do not have to charge it to your membership account.

I hope that you have looked at the website, as we have posted several things on there that you asked for (budget, capital spend list, etc.). As I said, it will look better once we get going on that, but the information is already there - www.danvillegolfclub.com.

We are brimming with ideas and hope that you will continue to tell us what you would like to see. It may take some time, but we are here to serve you.

Sincerely,
Robert Boerrigter, Club President

Manager's Corner

Dear Membership,

March has made its mark with warm weather, green grass, and beautiful spring flowers. As temperatures become more favorable, we remind you that Your Club has a wonderful patio to enjoy the spring and watch the golfers make the turn or finish their rounds. Relax with a wonderful glass of white wine or a transfusion cocktail.

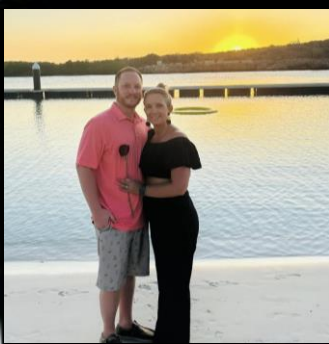

Starting the first Friday in May, we will be offering dinner reservations for the Main Dining Room and Main Bar. Simply ask Shirley or the staff if we can seat your party upstairs for Prime Rib Night. Remember the dress code tab in the "what's happening at your Club this week" email you receive every Monday if you need a refresher. Also, Sunday April 13th, we will be featuring the final round of the Master's Tournament in the 19th hole and will remain open until 7pm. We will have a Pimento Cheeseburger special and discounted draft beer and transfusion cocktails to enhance your golfing spirit. Please make your reservation so we can schedule properly.

April is always a busy month for your Danville Golf Club. We have lined up multiple weddings, baby showers, birthday parties and dinner events. I look forward to the increased traffic and the ability to serve such important events for our members. Our team pours so much into each detail during these special occasions. We hope a guest attending will be impressed enough to inquire about renting space at our wonderful facilities or a membership of their own in the near future.

My wife, Megan, and I took a special trip to Sandals in Royal Curacao to celebrate our honeymoon. We've been happily married now for 4 years, and it was worth the wait. Clear blue water, great weather, excellent food and all the local rum you could drink. A much-needed pause in our hectic lifestyle. A special thank you to our leadership team for not skipping a beat and allowing us this opportunity. I really appreciate their hard work, and all the staff does for me and our guests.

Sincerely, Andrew Walker

GOLF

TOURNAMENT

News

Well members... the time has changed, the temps have risen and I believe I have started seeing green on our beautiful golf course. Within the next few weeks, we will see major changes as the Bermuda begins to pop and the hard work of Adam and his staff begin to show us what they've been working on.

As we move in April, I wanted to remind you of our Kickoff Classic coming up on April 26th. Hopefully, you have signed your team up and are getting excited for one of the best events of the year. If you haven't signed up, this is your reminder to give the Pro Shop a call and have Jason or Craig put you on the list. I would like to have email addresses for all players playing on your team so they can receive communications before and after the event. We want to promote our Club and show off what all of us already know!

As we move through the Spring, some of our members will be getting together to work on various projects throughout the golf course and Club. We would love to have more help from our membership to help keep our costs down and continue to beautify these hallowed grounds. If you have time and can help, please reach out to me or any of the Boards members so that we can communicate to you as we work on different projects. If you aren't able to assist or volunteer, but you would like to help financially, reach out to Kathy or Shirley in office with your donation. If you would like information regarding certain projects, do not hesitate to ask. Your help, whether labor or financial, would be greatly appreciated!

I look forward to seeing you April 26th for the Kickoff Classic!

Happy Easter and Happy Masters!

Mark J. Dill,
Tournament Committee Chairman

Pro Tips & Golf Clinic Updates

Spring Golf Clinics Thursday's at 5pm

It's a great time to fine-tune your game. We are focusing on all aspects of the game, check our postings through Constant Contact by email. We are offering group and private lessons for all skill levels. Whether you want to improve your swing, putt like a pro, or learn the basics, we have a clinic for you.

Junior Drills & Skills Beginning Tuesday, April 8th

Make sure you get your juniors signed up for their age and times on Tuesday's, April – May. There are limited spots open for each age division. (Ages 6-8, 9-11 & 12-14) Cost of each participant for the 8 sessions is $150. We want to develop new golfers through these fun sessions!

Monthly Golf Tip – Improve Your Putting

As we transition into the season, a consistent putting game is key. This past week we had our Putting Clinic and one of the tips we would like to share would be to focus on speed and distance. Learn how softer grip pressure will ensure a better feel for distance. This will also ensure that the ball rolls true to its target. Look for more tips in our upcoming newsletters!

Course Updates

Course Maintenance

Our maintenance team has been hard at work preparing the course for the season. Expect lush greens and freshly manicured fairways as we continue our dedication to keeping the course in top condition. We appreciate your patience as we work to make this the best golfing season yet.

Course Etiquette Reminders

As the season gets into full swing, we'd like to remind everyone to help keep the course in top condition by practicing good golf etiquette:

- Repair all divots and ball marks to maintain the course for the next players.
- Keep pace with the group in front of you to ensure a smooth flow of play.
- Be mindful of other players—respect their time and their space on the course.
- Follow all daily cart rules.
- Take time to practice good golf manners—cheer on fellow members, encourage friendly competition, and enjoy the company of those around you.
- Remember our policies on dress attire, shirt tails tucked in and no denim.

Thank You for Being a Part of Our Golf Family!

We look forward to seeing you on the links and enjoying all the wonderful moments this season has to offer. Let's make it a fantastic year!

WGA April News

April has finally arrived and by the time you read this the WGA will have had our first day of play and Spring luncheon. Pictures will appear next month. Remember that in April our tee time is 9:30 and hostesses will be Jane Pratt and Connie Fletcher.

Please remember to call the pro shop prior to Tuesday morning to sign up for play so the hostesses can have our pairings ready.

On May 6, we will have our Annual Spring Play Day where you invite a guest who is not a member of our WGA group. It will be an 18-hole captains choice followed by a cookout on the patio. It's always a great day and we hope for a big turnout. Go ahead and invite your guest now to get it on their calendar. If you do not have someone to invite, let us know and we will try to find you a partner. There is usually a list of willing participants.

Hit 'em straight 🏏

ENTERTAINMENT/POOL/SPORT COURTS/FITNESS NEWS

Hello Sports fans! Yes, tis I, George III. No, it appears you can't get rid of me that easily! Out of the frying pan, into the fire, as they say. Newly appointed Pool & Sports Courts Committee Chair.

This is a position I haven't had before. I helped Sally Burton, what little I could, while she held the same position, and she did such a great job, btw. John Mason was past chair and he and his committee did a wonderful job as well.

With my committee firmly established, we are going to work hard to make this season a great experience for all of you. There will be rules to be sure, but our motto of "User Friendly" will be in place so that ALL may enjoy our facilities.

March madness has been going on for a while now. The end is upon us. But never fear, Spring has sprung and hay fever will keep us busy for quite a while. Yea! We will be counting down the days until Memorial Day weekend and get to the pool, and courts, and have some fun!

Get out and enjoy this warm weather that we waited so long to see. Thank you for being members of, and supporting, your Danville Golf Club. We look forward to seeing you soon!

George Davis,

Pool/Sports Courts/Fitness Chair
